Von Sheri Whitefeather : Demonic before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Demonic:

The first 2/3 of the book is a nice read - the last 1/3 is rushed Von Weeping Moon I pretty much liked the story, and the whole idea around it. Three guys, posing as "supernatural demons" - who frequent a club where kinky things happen... Three girls, who are friends, want to write a story about this club. Well, each guy finds his match in one of the girls. Here are three different kind of kinks described - and in a way which I found very entertaining. Domination/Submission (the most exotic in the story), decadent luxurious revelry and normal horny fun sex... so even if you are not really into any of those, it's still fun to read. The story starts out interesting, and it also was clear that more will happen than just "the pure sex thing". Sadly... the last 1/3 of the book was rather rushed. The girls have uncovered the mystery of those three guys. And from there the events go chop chop chop, rush to the happy ever after... as if someone pressed the "fast forward" button. Still. The book was fun and entertaining :)
