KurzbeschreibungBook Two of a Two Part Story Arc and the Second in the SeriesEan Sangraves friends are gone. At least, his human ones are.Zin, as always, is by his side. Years of advice and getting Ean out of trouble has earned him the title of Eans closest friend, Joining them now is Azalea the Yulari, another creature from the Abyss that feeds off the emotions of her victims to the point of death. Summoned in a moment of jealousy, Azalea would have killed Eans friends if he had not stopped her in time. So how do Bran and Jaslen pay him back for saving their lives? By running off with all of their supplies, leaving Ean with his imp and a fragile alliance with an alluring but deadly Yulari.Ean is now at a crossroads. Does he continue the quest originally placed on him and his friends to find a way to save Rottwealth from the monster that has taken over the mine? Or does he follow the advice of his companions from the Abyss and learn to control his growing power? The Healers apprentice inside of him hopes to somehow do both.Regardless of which quest he ultimately decides to follow, its Eans inner turmoil that worries him the most. The dark power of the Abyss is spreading through his body at an alarming rate. The tattoos that represent the power continue to grow across his body while dark dreams invade his mind. Can he hold off the darkness growing inside of him, or will Ean give in to the power and become the tyrant he has feared?KurzbeschreibungBook Two of a Two Part Story Arc and the Second in the SeriesEan Sangraves friends are gone.
