"Desire" by Carrie Cox is the first part of a five-part serial erotic romance and it starts with the female character, Kate Taylor, an art restoration specialist with a mysterious past, restoring a piece of artwork for the billionaire, Benjamin Easton. Having not met him personally, she mistakes him for the gardener and being surprised at how easily she gives in to his seduction. A great story, likable characters and the sex scenes are hot. It's a hot steamy read, enjoyed reading it. Looking forward for the next part.
