Doch das Glck ist nur von kurzer Dauer als Onkel und Tante ihn treffen und Joss um seine Mission zu erfflen seine Identitt enthllt. Ohne es zu wissen, bringt er sich damit in allergrte Gefahr.

George Barton, Lilahs Onkel und Joss Grovater erleidet einen Herzanfall und verstirbt auf der Stelle und seine Frau Amanda erklrt ihm voller Hass, da seine Mutter aus einem Seitensprung ihres Mannes mit einer Sklavin stammt und da diese Tatsache Joss auch zu einem Sklaven und zu ihrem Eigentum macht. Erbarmungslos lt sie schon bald den bis dahin freien und zu einem Gentleman erzogenen stolzen Mann auf dem Sklavenmarkt verkaufen. Es handelt sich hier um einen spannenden historischen Liebesroman, der in der Karibik spielt. Joss und Lilah sind beide interessante Charaktere, die zusammen allerlei Abenteuer erleben mssen, bevor sie endlich zueinander finden. 1 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A historical page turner Von Ein Kunde I have read all of Karen Robards' books and of her historical romances Desire in the Sun is the cream of the crop. The characters are believeable and react to problems appropretly. Leila is young and she acts like a young woman without the benifit of worldly experience. Joss is one of Robards best male characters he has a reason to hate Leila but he still has the capacity to love her.

Chicago Tribune About the Author: Ever since I was a little girl, I've loved to write. My first book was a ten-page effort written at age five for my grandmother. Throughout grade school, high school and college I wrote for various school publications. When I was eighteen, my first professionally published piece a humorous anecdote appeared in Readers Digest. Still, it never occurred to me that I might become a professional writer. I aimed for a career as a lawyer and was actually in law school when I sold my first book. When that happened, the world lost a would-be lawyer and gained a writer. That book, which is still in print, is Island Flame, and it was published when I was twenty-four. Since then, I've written over forty books, which regularly appear on the New York Times, USA Today, and Publishers Weekly bestseller lists, among others. The mother of three sons, I read, I write, and I chauffeur children. Thats my life.
