And I think I got it very cheaply. Those are the positives.The negatives are that the book is written in easy short sentences. For the story, while I don't expect detectives in crime stories to act as they would be in real life, it was getting a bit silly at times with potential suspects being allowed to take part in every part of the investigation, and being told information that the public doesn't know. What mostly annoyed me was the writing style - I just thought it very badly written. So people can make up their own mind, here some examples: 'Her gaze slid over him. He wasn't classically handsome, she knew that. He was big and muscled. Strong. He still had his holster on - she could see the outline of his weapon. He was a dangerous man, with a dangerous job. But he made her feel safe.' Katherine walked away. The shower kicked on a few moments later. He heard the spray of water from the next room. His breath rushed out. So fab. He wasn't used to turning away from a woman who looked like a wet dream.' 2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich.

Groschenroman Von M.B. Dextrus Die Ex-Verlobte eines verrückten Serienkillers sucht Zuflucht in New Orleans. Dort passieren plötzlich Morde nach dem selben Muster, wie sie seinerzeit ihr Verlobter ausgeht hat. Schnell erklärt sich ein lokaler Polizist dafür zuständig der selbstverständlich atemberaubend schönen Frau als Beschützer zur Seite zu stehen. Ein einfallsloser Handlungsrahmen, der nur dadurch noch getoppt wird, dass der Polizist als heibltig, arrogant und total unprofessionell rberkommt. Seine ermittlungstechnischen Fehler sind selbst für Krimilaien sofort erkennbar und mit seiner aufbrausenden Machoart wirkt er nicht nur als Cop unglaublich, sondern auch als "Traumtyp". Mir scheint, dieser Roman (als "Thriller" würde ich das wirklich nicht bezeichnen) wurde hauptsächlich für Teeny-Girls konzipiert. Leider habe ich das Buch angefangen zu lesen, deshalb musste ich es auch beenden. Ich war froh, als ich es hinter mir hatte. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Too much love Von Lilly Deese In my opinion a little too much of a love story within a thriller. She is a too calculating on one side and on the other hand, jumps into bed with a guy she does NOT really know, seems vulnerable and breakable and the next moment, willing to kill. I don't know. I think it's inconsistent and I won't read it twice.
