A real Winner!Von Ein KundeI just wanted to say that this book, LEGACY, has been honored by WALDENBOOKS. At the RWA Conference on August 1, 1998 LEGACY received the award for the Bestselling Multicultural Romance of 1997. Needless to say, the author is thrilled.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Ahhhh!Von Ein KundeI am not a fan of romance, but this book has pushed to purchase more. Great romantic storyline. I didn't understand the relationship between Erika and the old man, but ...

Kurzbeschreibung Erika St. James has seen both the best of life and the worst of it. Losing the only parent who loved her unconditionally when she was twelve, she fled to a man who became a dear friend and one who taught her to run a global business. However, he didn't teach her to how to find good relationships -- especially the man-woman kind. On his death-bed he tells her a secret, one that brings Michael Lawrence in to again upset her emotions. Michael Lawrence, a traumatized attorney, turned his back on the law and escaped to a solitary life in the Maryland mountains. Discovering he is heir to a fortune, he can only claim it if he returns to the city and works with Erika St. James, the beautiful new president of a multinational corporation. While his thoughts of her stray from the boardroom to the bedroom, someone else has plans to make him pay for past deeds. And Erika is the pawn he'll use to force Michael into his crosshairs. If they survive, will they be able to love again?
