Von Al Lacy : Legacy (Journeys of the Stranger) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Legacy (Journeys of the Stranger):

Von Ein Kunde This book is great for readers who prefer small, vignette-style stories within a novel, rather than a long, drawn-out, well explored single storyline. Although some out-of-place wording was distracting (in a story set just after the Civil War, dialogue concerning another character's "big ego" is a bit premature, as "ego" is a twentieth century word), the storyline moves along at a fairly quick pace. Written so that the reader is given the point of view of both heroine Breanna Baylor and hero John Stranger, this book contains equal amounts of action and romance. Set on a foundation of solid Christian morals, it is sure to be enjoyed by the portion of the population that needs a little adrenaline kick with appropriate thought-provoking life-lessons attached.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Excellent book!!!Von Ein KundeNormally, I just about can't stand to read books. You know, too many other things to do. With Al Lacy's "Journey of the Stranger" series and "Angel of Mercy" series, when I finish a book, I am not ready to stop reading yet. It's as though I suffer from 'Lacy Withdrawl' when I don't have another Al Lacy book ready to read. I can sit down and read his books for hours.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. YOU MUST READ THIS BOOKVon Ein KundeAny Christian or just anyone would love this book.This series is thrilling it keeps you on the edge of your seat until the last page and leaves you begging for more. This portrayal of a mysterious man from the old west keeps you hooked as he moves from one danger to the next. Who is he? Read the book and find out.
