Thatch.Jagger - who's been both Grey's and Ben's best friend since they were kids - has been by her side through everything. He's the only person she can go to if she needs to talk and cry about missing Ben. But Jagger, who's also grieving for the loss of his best friend, has kept a secret from Grey for almost ten years. A secret that Grey somehow never guessed - everybody else seems to know about it though....Jagger is in love with Grey. And he hates himself for that. Hates that his best friend had to die and leave Grey behind. Hates that it wasn't Jagger who died. Hates that he has those feelings for someone who will never be able to love him back. And now that Grey saw his paintings - paintings/drawings Jagger made of her - the secret is out in the open. Grey doesn't really know how to deal with this new information - what to think - what to do - so she leaves town and stays with her friend Janie in Seattle. And Jagger lets her go, he wants her to be happy, to think about things.... But he won't let her stay away forever. He's going after her. But Grey's conscience and grief and guilt are not the only problems standing in their way... There's Jagger's mom - his sister - his Ex WHAT WILL HAPPEN WITH GREY JAGGER??? WILL THEIR FUTURE HAVE A CHANCE??? WILL THERE BE A HEA??? WILL THERE BE A HORRIBLE CLIFFHANGER??? Nope - I'm not telling you. Ok - I can tell you that there won't be a Cliffhanger - it's a standalone Romance - the next books in the series will be about other people we met in Thatch! _____ I REALLY LOOVED THE BOOK! What I didn't love and what I was literally even a little bit scared of was the cover?? Am I the only one who thinks this cover and especially the people on it are a bit - a LOT - creepy?? They look like some kind of Aliens or cult-recruitment people!!! And the colorful colors make it even worse!!! There's nothing really colorful about the book and well - I think the cover is just creepy... I even thought about thinking of giving only 2 or 3 stars but the cover is not the stories' fault AND THANK YOU MOLLY as soon as I 'met' Jagger, I was in love with him. He's soooo amazing! Such an adorable and hot former bad boy... he's so patient and sweet with Grey!!! And he looks NOTHING like the guy on the cover. After reading the blurb we already know that this was going to be a really emotional book... There were lots of scenes that made me cry!!! But thankfully we also have some verrry sexy romantic scenes too! I sometimes had the feeling that I didn't want to keep on reading, because I was afraid that maybe.. the story won't have a happy ending - maybe everybody would die - or just only one important person - I was really afraid.... But - phew - nobody - other than Ben in the beginning - dies! I LOVED EVERY SECOND OF THIS BOOK!!!! Everything sad moving funny sexy suspensy!!! You will definitely have to add Jagger to your Book Boyfriend List. Oh and can I just say how much I loved his name?? Jagger!!! My Dad was this huge Rolling Stones fan too - should I ever get a dog or a pet pig ;) I will SO name them Jagger too LETTING GO was an amazingly moving Romance about letting go, moving on and of finally finding a HEA! I couldn't put it down! READ IT!!!
