captivatingVon Katharina AdamskiI found the book really captivating. It was verry interesting to read about abuse and relationships from a male point of view. Besides that it was easy for me to empathzie with the protagonist by the way the book was written.My conclusion: Great book which i can recommend to anyone who loves to read :)! Enjoy0 von Kurzbeschreibung With his time at university a typically decadent affair of casual sex and hard drinking, the life of our student protagonist is turned on its head when he finally manages to snag the object of his desires, his Princess. Although, with both the world of work and the love of his life proving to provide nothing but obstacle after obstacle, his struggle to keep the relationship afloat in a seemingly hopeless situation sees him increasingly look for solace at the bottom of a bottle, searching for answers whilst unwittingly on self-destruct...
