KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Really enjoyedVon Jayne 101Really enjoyed.Took me on a journey across the world in mind and spirit as well as through the centuries. Likeable characters well developed. Made me question how I would cope with having an eternal life. Recommended to those searching for answers to life's many mysteries. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Uplifting Von Lisa_1970 An uplifting tale. Unique storytelling of romance and adventure. Like an escape from real life following the trials and tribulations of one man's journey; and of one woman's too. A sweet book with lots of twists and turns. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Good fable Von Tony B Filled with layers of detail, Franc and Sam's stories brought forward some great imagery. Liked the worldly feel of the book and the people who the main characters met with. A good fable both moving and fun, a look into the many lives we may at one time lead. 5 stars.

Kurzbeschreibung My name is Franc Barbour. I was born on the 20th July 1845 in the town of Saumur, deep in the heart of the Loire Valley, France. The truth of the matter is I simply never died. These are the opening words a young nurse reads in an old leather bound journal given to her by a stranger. She soon uncovers the story of one man's journey through the centuries. A story of one man's journey through the centuries. Following Franc's path from 1845 until present day, Lifes Heart Eternal is a tale of how our actions in each lifetime often hold consequences in the next. With Franc's travels across the world in his endless years he encounters the souls of his youth time and time again as they are reincarnated in different bodies, leaving it to him to recognise the souls of his past, be them his childhood sweetheart, his brothers or his enemies, each presents a life lesson for him to learn. For who has never wondered what it would be like to live forever?
