A badass female ex-cop turned P.I. tries to find a kidnapped child in a case where everything has another layer. Even though I'm not really a fan of first person perspectives it works here because Cal doesn't dwell endlessly on things but is a woman of action. Quite a lot questions are left open in the end, enough to be made curious for the next book but not too many to be left unsatisfied. I'd like to read more about Cal, because she has the right amount of strength and vulnerability, regrets and compartmentalizing. And yes, I'm a sucker for the prospect of a romantic development even though his is not a romantic suspense.1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Really good bookVon C. JeskeI loved the main character, she is really unique. But so are the side characters. Good story too. And free. So read it, you'll not be disappointed.
