Von Michelle M. Pillow : Lord of Fire, Lady of Ice (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lord of Fire, Lady of Ice (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Big Viking TeddyBearVon RobynWOOOWZA! ~ I really enjoyed this storyline. Twist and turns at every corner. I really connected with the heroine of this story, Della. I relate to Della, we love to be a fixer and control everything around our world. Not for the sake of being right, but just to have everything run correctly like a well-oiled machine. Della never sleeps. After witnessing her pregnant mother being murdered when she was a young child the horrible images and sounds plague her mind. At times she wanders the halls of the castle. That is until her world is spun upside down and inside out with the rushed nuptials of a marriage to a heathen pagan Viking. Della does not understand the intimate goings on between a man and woman. Dellas innocents are sweet and her big husband is ever so gentle with her. Michelle tugged at my heart, mind and body with this story; I was All In feeling every emotion for both Della and Brant. I do not think Dellas character was shallow at all, in fact I see her as a very strong, sometimes stoic woman. She proves herself in this book. I did not want to see this end. I got the warm good-feeling at the end.
