Exceptional book.Von LjaynoWow, just wow. Great story, full of anticipation and excitement. Perfectly shaped characters. Unique writing. if you like books that will make you think you are definitely gonna love this one. But be aware not recommended for weak hearts. And you'll sure need some chocolate to sweeten up your emotions.

KurzbeschreibungA love so strong it might destroy them.Forced back to her hometown, Christina Martin is confronted by a past she's spent the last eight years carefully avoiding. Matters are complicated when she finds her ex husband, Riley, also in residence.When Christina gave up on love and music for a law career, Riley built a life without her. His policy of pretending she doesn't exist collapses when she busts in on him in the middle of the night.The one night stand wasnt meant to happen. They both know its over, but the head and heart want different things. Moving from the past to the present, Lost in Flight explores the relationship of a love so strong, it might destroy them.Recommended for readers over the age of eighteen, Lost in Flight is Book Two in The Complicated Love Series."Lost In Flight was a bit of a roller coaster for me. It had me giggling, shaking my fist, fanning myself, and looking around for onion chopping ninjas." M.H. Sheedy" love the passion these characters have. Whether plotting revenge against the other, or plotting to get back together, there is always passion. Add the quirky wit, crazy friends and family, and personal demons, and you have a recipe for a fantastic story. And the musical references make me smile." Anna Smith"I loved the second book even more than the first.. I have fallen love with the charcters that Neeny Boucher has developed , even gross and perverted Mason." Carmen Goodman"Lots of snark and double the dose of sarcasm but you feel part of the scene. These characters are strong and leap off the page! Great dialogue and interesting backstory." Booklover"I love finding a new great writer. This book was hard to put down, but at the same time I didn't want it to end. Great characters and great story. True love is never easy and sometimes the road is full of challenges."
