Von Katerina Papanikolaou : Love and other addictions! (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Love and other addictions! (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Fresh, clever, funny!Von A.Vollf If I should describe it in one word, well, that should be "witty"! I spent some amusing hours reading the book, I laughed with the vivid dialogues and I saw myself in some moments. A clever love story, romantic but not mellow, funny but not sappy. I strongly recommend it, you will surely enjoy it!

Kurzbeschreibung34-year-old Andriana lives a somewhat normal life, dividing her time between her good friends, a vivid nightlife and her successful career. And then he comes along! Sexy, tall, witty, deceptively charming, emotionally non-available. Living in the years when looking for your other half is a bit like playing Russian Roulette, Andriana is trapped in a passionate love-sex situation which is practically turning her from a business woman into a teenager. She is struggling to regain her balance, while at the same time trying to seduce him even further, to get him out of her life, to tame him, to understand him, to forget him by sleeping with others, to get enlightenment from Greek and Japanese fortune-tellers! Not necessarily in that orderUntil one day, reality kicks in. Not exactly in a way that one would hope.*"An entertaining novel about the perils of finding love" Kirkus sLove and other addictions! became a best-seller in Greece under the title "Where are you going, honey?"* The way I was functioning, even my Aunt Marika from a small village in Crete could secretly have taken my place as the Contract Manager of an advanced technology company and done a better job! But, that's the way things are... you sweat blood for many years in order to build a certain business profile and then a tall, sexy, muscled, dark blond, bug-eyed guy appears and in two-and-a-half months has ruined everything *best book Ive read, couldnt stop laughing, funny, enjoyable, great story-telling
