Von Ein Kunde This is a lively, amusing romance about an advertising executive named Cat who prefers to keep her well-planned life under strict control. And that includes, of course, doing her darndest to stop the disastrous elopement of her younger sister with the son of an old business rival. But the pursuit of the eloping couple is impeded by the irritating intervention of the young man's gorgeous older brother, who just happens to be an old flame of Cat's own. And suddenly her life is spinning way out of control. . . A spirited story in a romantic setting, this one is loads of fun!1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. When I was reading it I laughed out loud so often that now my family thinks I'm crazy! I've read many of Shari MacDonald's books and she always does a superb job. This one is no exception. I recommend buying the other two books in this series for a fun read!

KurzbeschreibungThe Salinger Sisters Series spins the tales of four sisters who find love in spite of themselves. The love and laughs begin in Book One, Love on the Run. For years, Catherine Salinger's father competed fiercely against his former friend and nemesis in the advertising business, Miles Riley. These days, however, Cat is in charge, and taking her responsibility very seriously especially now that the two companies are competing for a multi-million dollar deal with one of the fastest-growing athletic shoe companies in the world. That's why, when she finds out that her younger sister Daphne has run away with Riley's youngest son, Cat vows to stop the elopement (and the potential leak of information), even if it means following the couple across the globe, and taking Jonas Riley, Miles' overbearing, gorgeous oldest son!From the Trade Paperback edition.KurzbeschreibungThe Salinger Sisters Series spins the tales of four sisters who find love in spite of themselves.
