Von Juli Habe das Buch geschenkt bekommen und sehr gern gelesen. Mir haben auch die Beschreibungen der Zeitsprünge bzw. "Begegnungen" gut gefallen, finde das Buch sehr stimmig und keinesfalls plump oder kitschig geschrieben. Konnte es gar nicht mehr aus der Hand legen...

Kurzbeschreibung
Do you believe in ghosts? Fleeing expulsion and the death of a close friend, Andrew Taylor is sent to spend his final year at the prestigious public school Harrow. It is an eccentric place, a rambling ancient building filled with the sons of the rich and famous, and Andrew feels distinctly out of place. Andrew bears a striking resemblance to Lord Byron, a former pupil of Harrow - and that is when the trouble begins. He senses a malevolent presence, and when a classmate dies, his fears become all too real. Then Andrew discovers some old letters hidden in a bricked-up basement, which hint at a secret history buried in the school's past. But what is the link between these letters and the strange events that are happening at the school now and is he also in danger?
Pressestimme
done beautifully well. Evans, an American who spent a year at Harrow himself, is a masterly conjuror of mood (Christopher Bray DAILY EXPRESS) the characters are all well-drawn, the famed poet turned failed teacher Piers Fawkes being particularly noteworthy. There's love, coming-of-age stuff and moral wrangles to enjoy (Guy Haley SFX) Have Andrew's Byronic good looks conjured up this malevolent wraith? The Byronic storyline has some intriguing moments (Harry Ritchie DAILY MAIL) An atmospheric tale that skilfully conjures up the dusty, eccentric surroundings of a privileged boys' school and its inhabitants.. surprising and frightening (LIVING NORTH) A fast-paced, original and chilling story of ghostly happenings, unexplained deaths, in the buttoned-up world of the English public school.
