not to fight in the upcoming war between the English and his Scots. However, his friends, the MacKinnon and the MacDonald, persuade Alex to join James Stewart's cause. Alex reluctantly leaves behind his beloved wife Mary Rose and his cherished two sons from a previous marriage to fight for Scottish freedom. However, Alex finds the Scottish leadership lacking in courage and tactics. He protests the bad decisions, but stays the course even when James Stewart flees to France. Alex refuses to go home in spite of missing his family and his estate until his people return home safely. To do so, he is forced to surrender to the English, who imprison him in the Tower. Though English, Mary risks her own safety by traveling to London to save the man who she loves beyond reasoning.

WILD ROSE OF KILGANNON, the sequel to KILGANNON, is an exciting historical romance that brings to life the events and lead personalities of the Jacobite Rebellion. The story line is entertaining due to the remarkable lead characters. Alex is an amazing hero, who understands loyalty as he insures his men safely return to their homes. Mary, who gave up everything for his love, willingly gives up even more for his freedom. Kathleen Givens gives her audience two sensational eighteenth century romances that provide much pleasure to sub-genre fans.

I have finished the first book, and am 3/4 thru the second. Being half-Scots myself, anything that deals with Scotland I love. My husband found me crying as I was reading this story. It was so compelling, being written in the first person; you felt you were right there with Mary, and feeling her loss.

Ein super Roman, bei dem man ein Tempo immer griffbereit haben muss Von -Kunde Nachdem ich bei einem halbes Jahr gebraucht habe, um dieses Buch zu bekommen, bin ich nun seit 3 Tagen im Besitz dieses. Ich habe bis jetzt 3/4 gelesen und kann es kaum glauben, dass die Geschichte um Mary Rose und Alex fast zu Ende ist. Die Geschichte beginnt dort, wo der letzte Band aufhört. Alex verlässt seine Familie um für sein Land unter James Stuart zu kämpfen. Er "opfert" sich aber dann schließlich für seinen Clan, damit dieser in Ruhe und Frieden leben kann. Ein einziges Mal noch, darf er nach Hause um sich zu verabschieden. Und eine letzte Nacht mit Mary. Doch diese will sich nicht mit dem baldigen Tod ihres Mannes abfinden und kämpft für ihn. Genauso wie es einige seiner Clanmitglieder tun. Doch als er dann von Edinburgh nach London transportiert wird, scheinen die Chancen immer schlechter zu werden. Die Abschiedsszenen zwischen Alex und seiner Familie sind sehr bewegend (zeit für's Tempo)! Da ich selber noch nicht weiß wie es ausgeht, kann ich bis jetzt nur jeden Kathleen Givens-Fan die Bücher um Mary und Alex (Kilgannon und The Wild Rose of Kilgannon) empfehlen. Wer es nicht auf Englisch lesen will muss bis 2009 warten, dort soll es dann endlich auf Deutsch erscheinen.
