Von Trudi Canavan : Thief's Magic: Book 1 of Millennium's Rule (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Thief's Magic: Book 1 of Millennium's Rule (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen8 von 8 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Not a "Sonea"-book, not an "Age"-book.Von WolfwentSo, to put it all at the beginning: You'll be disappointed if you were looking for a second Sonea-trilogy. This is a completely new world, with a new and inventive magic-system and two main protagonists. You have to get used to the kind of storytelling since it switches back and forth between Tyen a student of magic and Rielle, who is living in a desert like area, where magic is forbidden to be used except for a religious, ruling group. I don't want to tell you more than that because it would be spoiling. The writing is compelling, always hinting at more behind the next chapter. Sometimes it was deliciously frustrating to read to a cliffhanger... only to see that you have to go through a chapter of the other protagonist. And thus you go on and on and on, always eager to get on with it. I loved it. So, why only 4 stars? I'm still missing the big picture. Why these two? What will happen to these two? And if I assume correctly, then there has already been one hint too much in this first book. I'm really eager to get my hands on the next one. If you enjoyed Canavan so far, you really ought to get this one!

Wie alle Bücher von Trudi Canavan ist auch dieses sehr schön zu lesen. Vom Stil her etwas anders, aber trotzdem fesselnd und aufregend bis zum Ende.

Grundstzlich fesselnde Story, neues Konzept bezogen auf die Funktionsweise von Magie. Tolle Charaktere zwischen denen immer wieder mal gewechselt wird.
