Von Kate Harper : This Wicked Man - A Regency Novel (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised This Wicked Man - A Regency Novel (English Edition):

This Wicked ManVon Jesko und Eve Abrahaminteresting situation at first: woman takes over orphaned nephew and abandoned house. Hero however boring, sentences occasionally repetitive, surprised by Australian slang...!2 von 6 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A very good readVon Gloria MullerMost enjoyable. A woman's book and a delightful one. Romantic but with lots of feeling for others. Would read more of this author.

KurzbeschreibungMeg Holstock, a bluestocking and a spinster, cannot believe it when she ends up as the guardian of her orphaned nephew. A failed governess, she knows nothing about children and even less about those that are grieving. Thrust into the wilds of Surrey - and the dubious charms of a rundown cottage - she believes life will be singularly dull. But that is before she meets her neighbor, a sinfully wicked viscount whose reputation for seduction is legendary. Her well meaning neighbors warn her to stay away and even the man himself seems inclined to think she would be a fool to dally with him, but she cannot stay away. What is it about this wicked man that urges her to break the rules? And how can she convince someone who believes himself to be beyond redemption that the heart is always capable of resurrection?
