KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Nice read that surprised me!Von Nicole des BouvriePerhaps it's because I like Paris, French cooking and baking. But the story was actually much better than I expected. It was entertaining, and I'm definitely going to try some of the recipes in the book. Definitely a book for everyone with a romantic heart and a love of the French capital. Although the story is a bit absurd and fantastic sometimes, but it didn't really bother me :) I received a e-book copy of this book to review it.

Kurzbeschreibung Finally a book as sexy and indulgent as Paris itself... Three French Hens is the story of three women who are brought together under the roof of a small bakery at the foot of the Eiffel Tower. Their shop, The Two Macarons, is the bakery in Paris until an ultra-rich, money-hungry businessman teams up with an ex-boyfriend to take over the dessert market, threatening the livelihood of the women's bakery and their lives. An erotic tale served with thirty indulgent recipes from the showcased bakery, Three French Hens is a delicious debut by its young author not to be passed by. Tempt yourself with recipes for Blackberry Financiers Charlotte a la Framboise (Raspberry Charlotte) La Buche de Noel (Yule Log) Tarte a la Citrouille (French Pumpkin Pie) Croquembouche (Caramel Glazed Cream Puffs) Cassis Macarons (Black Currant Macarons) Upside Down Apple Tart Creme Brulee And over 20 other delicious, French-perfected recipes! What woman doesn't deserve a treat? Buy your copy of the Three French Hens today! Please note that this book does contain explicit content meant for adult audiences
