in Cheek Von Christina Remy I just finished reading Tabitha Flyte's Tongue in Cheek and thought it was not just the usual erotic senseless dribble but an unusually intelligent story of a young woman exploring herself. Tongue in Cheek will take you on an interesting journey through one woman's relationships with a stable, sensible man to a young high school student. I think readers will get a two in one special here. There are plenty of love scenes that will make you cross your legs and blush plus an enthralling story that will stop you from skipping pages to get to the loving. I hope I hear more from this author. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. And not just in cheek! Von Ein Kunde Wow! Too hot to be read in public. It wasn't just sex, it was funny and clever, too (although the sex was compelling)! Great heroine, could really relate to her. I'd just love to be brave enough to try those board room tricks in my next meeting. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. yummy! Von Ein Kunde I loved this book, its sassy and funny and full of girly stuff and that's just the bits with no sex in them! It was very hot, I loved Marcus and didn't want to finish the book as I enjoyed it so much! More please!

Kurzbeschreibung Sally's in a pickle. Her conservative bosses won't let her do anything she wants at work and her long-term boyfriend Will has given her the push. Then she meets the beautiful young Marcus outside a local college. Only problem is he's a little too young. She's thirty-something and he's a teenager. But Sally's a spirited young woman and is determined to shake things up at the office and in her personal life. When Mr Finnegan - her lecherous old-fashioned boss - discovers Sally's sexual peccadilloes, he's determined to get some action of his own. He involves the equally perverse Miss Penny Feather and it isn't too long before everyone's enjoying naughty - and very bizarre - shenanigans. Pressestimmen "(BLACK LACE BOOKS) CREATE CULT HEROINES.'
