Schade ums GeldVon MonikatzZugegeben, das Heftchen (denn Buch kann man das nicht nennen) war nicht teuer. Das sind aber schon die ganzen Vorteile.Dermaen schlecht geschrieben und die Handlung so durchsichtig..... als htte jemand ein paar Notizen genommen und versucht ein Buch draus zu machen. Ich lese gerne die Bücher der Autorin und liebe die Jimmy Perez Reihe - aber das Heft war eine Zumutung! 4 von 4 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Chronology of an investigation conducted by Jimmy Perez - who... Von Miki101. Micha ...leaves his Shetland Islands for the Scottish mainland. To look into the death of the young teacher Anne Blackwell. Which is classified by the Fiscal - the Scottish Coroner - for now as a presumed suicide. But the gossip in the small village of Stonebridge whispers of a relation with Dr Thomas King, who is now married with Jimmy's first wife, Sarah. Having two children, too. Anna was the unmarried mother of Lucy, a four-year-old. Being a teacher with all her heart, Anna was very depressed about an impending possible removal, who was initiated by Sarah. Mostly out of jealousy, because she believed that Tom had a relation with the woman, may be also the unknown father of her daughter. Jimmy Perez who has lost his great love Fran not long ago, gives the investigation of a probable crime exactly two days. So the reader follows chapter by chapter the first real investigation of the death by antidepressants of the poor lass... This short read is no masterpiece but entertains the interested reader for an hour or two. We learn a lot about the toxic gossip that rules small villages, and not only in Scotland. The crime is methodically as always resolved by Inspector Perez and the solution is logically and not too far-fetched. The local police could have done a bit more of an investigation themselves, but a crime was almost instantly excluded, given the special circumstances. A crime-story not based on a lot of suspense but on solid police work. Which brings justice for the poor victim and a better life for her poor daughter, too. For the price of 99 Eurocents a worthy read for the fans of Ann Cleeves and Jimmy Perez. And also for all those readers who like a story about a meticulously conducted murder investigation. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. I love this little crime Von E. Leisering This little crime is perfect for English learning. The language is for B1-B2 level quite good readable. For some words I looked in the Kindle dictionary. The story is thrilling, but not bloody. Some things were made too easy, but it was perfect for me and read it in about 2 hours. I discovered this author and I am sure, I will read some other her crime stories.
